

East vs. West – the brides difference

Every gentleman wants to have a warm, tender, loving and caring woman as his wife. And it seems that all the ladies over the world should have these traits, but sorry to say, not many women really do. It's a common knowledge that Russian brides have always been considered to be an ideal women for marriage. Many Western men are very unhappy with their local women. Everything they want is a woman who will be a more "traditional" kind of wife, who probably prefers being a wife and a mother than being a businesswoman. The truth is average Russian bride, while she is anything but submissive, is usually not so forceful and domineering as Western women are used to be. These women are generally highly supportive of their husbands. Most men seeking such a wife really want someone who isn't the extreme opposite to a meek Henny-Penny either. Unfortunately, too many of today's American and Western women are, and these men have simply given up on them. The gentlemen, searching for a mail order bride, are mostly just ordinary guys. In the 1990s, the majority of the men seeking Russian women were middle aged divorced men in their forties and fifties. After numerous dates with American women they were not able to find the kind of woman they wanted. For the most part these men want a woman significantly younger than themselves (about 10 and 20 years of age difference), who is physically attractive, charming, gentle, sweet, feminine and whose primary goal is to become his wife, as opposed to pursuing some professional career and, in addition, being a wife. Nowadays an amount of young men seeking penpals and wives in Russia or other FSU countries increased greatly. These younger men are looking for the same basic kind of woman as the older men, with the exception that they are seeking wives closer to their own age (it's not important whether the lady is even some years elder than the man). Russian and Ukrainian girls are beautiful, honest, smart and strong. They are considered to be the best women in the whole universe and other galaxies too. They are the best friends, best penpals and best wives. Russian ladies are famous for their promiscuity... as Russian men are known for their drinking problems. It might be considered as an asset if you are looking for some easy fun but if you have serious intentions and strong family values be careful!
